

Do you have a young child on the autism spectrum?

The Autism Advisor Program (AAP) is a FREE information and support service for parents and carers of young children (0-6 years) who have received a diagnosis of autism or who think their child may be on the autism spectrum.

Autism Advisor
Program Qld

Autism Advisors can provide information about:

- ▶ Autism and what it means for you and your family
- ▶ Diagnosis
- ▶ Early childhood intervention
- ▶ Local services and supports for your child and family
- ▶ The NDIS process
- ▶ Childcare, kindergarten and school
- ▶ Centrelink and Medicare

We can provide information and support through:

- ▶ Information Line
General information about autism, funding and early childhood intervention
- ▶ Individual consultations
Depending on your preference and where you live these may be delivered in person, via telephone or webinar meetings.
- ▶ Facilitated Peer Support Groups
Conversations with other parents and carers.
- ▶ Information forums
Covering a range of topics e.g. accessing the NDIS.
