

Fun, Friends & Feelings

A four-day school holiday group for children on the autism spectrum (aged 5-7) designed to help develop their social skills.

Would you like your child to learn to communicate effectively with peers, family and staff at school and child care?

Do you want them to take turns and join in with other children's games?

The Fun, Friends & Feelings group can deliver this and more!

Fun, Friends & Feeling is a four-day school holiday group (2.5 hours each day) for 4-6 children and their families. It is delivered by two staff members from our team of specialist therapists and educators.

Participants will engage in activities that focus on using the group environment to reinforce a range of social skills, including coping with stress and frustration, communication and making friends.

There is a fee for this group. Please contact us for a quote.
