

Autism Queensland is a provider of the Kindy Inclusion Service Program. These a FREE face-to-face and online statewide services provided to Queensland Government Education approved kindergarten programs.

These services include:

- Visits (face-to-face or online)
- Educator Phonenumber (07) 3540 8610
(8:30am-3:30pm, Monday to Friday excl. Public Holidays)
- Online Resource Hub
- Workshops and webinars

Provide information and education about autism.

Working alongside educators to create inclusive learning environments.

Fast access to information through online resource hub and phonenumber.

Work with educators to support children to experience success in their kindergarten year and, furthermore, their transition into, during and exiting Kindy.

Spending time in the Kindy, alongside staff and children.

Educators can call (07) 3540 8610 to speak directly to an Early Years Inclusion Consultant for practical strategies or to request a FREE visit.
Access the free online hub or request a visit here:

