Queenslanders Disability Network (QDN), in partnership with Queensland Government, invites you to attend a disability reform forum.

You are invited to attend the forum if you are:

- a person with disability
- a family member or carer
- a service provider
- work or volunteer at a community organisation
- an advocate for people with disability.

Make your voice count at the upcoming disability reform forum

Disability Reform Community Forums May - June 2025

What's happening at the forum?

- Hear what people have said in earlier forums and how it is informing reform work.
- Share what is important to you and your community in shaping targeted foundational supports for children under 9 in Queensland.

Why attend?

The forum is a chance for you to:

- make your voice count – help shape outcomes that will work in your region
- connect with community – meet others working toward change in the disability sector
- ask questions and hear from the team.
