

Service Overview

Early Years Inclusion (EYI) Consultancy

All People, All Places, All Spaces.

Our EYI team empowers educators in early years settings with the knowledge and capacity to embed inclusive practices that maximise access, engagement, and participation for all children at a whole-service level.

Through collaborative and holistic support, our consultants tailor strength-based coaching to each educator and setting. This process empowers early years organisations to take ownership, eliminate barriers, and engage in ongoing reflection to promote inclusion.

Inclusive learning environments for all children

- Evidence-Informed Expertise: Gain knowledge and strategies tailored to best practices in early years settings by our highly skilled transdisciplinary professionals.
- Individualised Solutions: Customised to suit your specific setting and needs.
- Curriculum Alignment: Aligned with the Early Years Learning Framework (EYLF), Queensland Kindergarten Learning Guidelines (QKLG), My Time Our Place, and the Australian Curriculum.
- Collaborative Approach: Co-designed in partnership with you to achieve outcomes.

Statewide transdisciplinary consultancy team

Our EYI team includes therapists, special education teachers, and developmental educators. We combine expertise to deliver tailored, evidence-based support, addressing the diverse needs of all children, staff, and the operational practicalities of every setting.

Enabling access, engagement, and participation

Our consultants provide:

- Coaching & Mentoring: Empowering educators and staff with knowledge and confidence through on the ground practical guidance and support.
- Service Development and Adjustments: Co-designing and implementing policy, practices and adjustments to promote inclusion for all.
- Education Provision: Sharing knowledge about autism, neurodivergent learners, and universal design for learning.
- Team Collaboration: Partnering with all staff to promote cohesion.
- Targeted Resources: Co-development and implementation of resources and strategies.

Client Feedback:

"We loved the approach of having AQ support and validate that we are trying our best and that helps us build skills and confidence in ourselves."
