

Inclusive Education Consultancy

All People, All Places, All Spaces.

Our team empowers school educators in with the knowledge and capacity to foster inclusive practices that maximise access, engagement, and participation for all students across the entire school community.

Through regular and consistent support across a school term or full school year, our consultants tailor strength-based coaching to each educator and school setting. This empowers them to turn theory into practice and effectively design inclusive, thriving learning environments for every student.

Empowering teachers and school staff with practical strategies

- Evidence-Informed Expertise: Gain knowledge and strategies tailored to best practices in education by our highly skilled transdisciplinary professionals.
- Individualised Solutions: Customised to suit your school's needs.
- Curriculum Alignment: Aligned with the National Consistent Collection of Data (NCCD) on School Students with Disability and the Australian Curriculum.
- Collaborative Approach: Co-designed in partnership with you to ensure success.

Statewide transdisciplinary consultancy team

Our team includes therapists, special education teachers, and developmental educators. We combine expertise to deliver tailored, evidence-based support, addressing the diverse needs of all students, staff, and the operational practicalities of every school.
